ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

- US economy dropped to 1.5% in Q2CY26, against 2.1% in Q1CY26
- Fed left its interest rates unchanged at 3.50-3.75% at its Jul-26 meeting, marking fifth consecutive pause
- Resilient US economic data, elevated crude oil prices and expectations that the US Fed would keep interest rates higher for longer helped the yield on the US 10-year Treasury close at 4.61% on July 28, 2026 up from 4.44% on June 30, 2026

- GDP is expected to grow at 6.6% on-year in FY27, compared with 7.7% in FY26. Higher input cost pressures, forecast of a below normal southwest monsoon due to El Niño and softer global growth are expected to impact growth. However, relative resilience in consumption demand and continued government capital expenditure are expected to support growth
- A sharp rise in energy and other input costs is expected to be passed on by producers to consumers, raising core inflation. Below-normal rainfall amid El Nino conditions and heatwaves during summer are expected to put pressure on food inflation

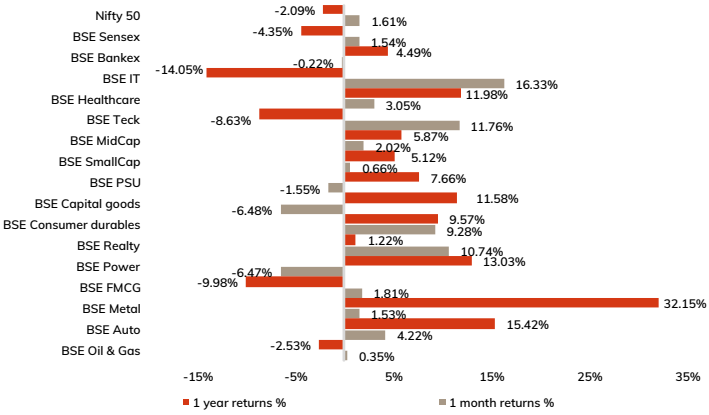
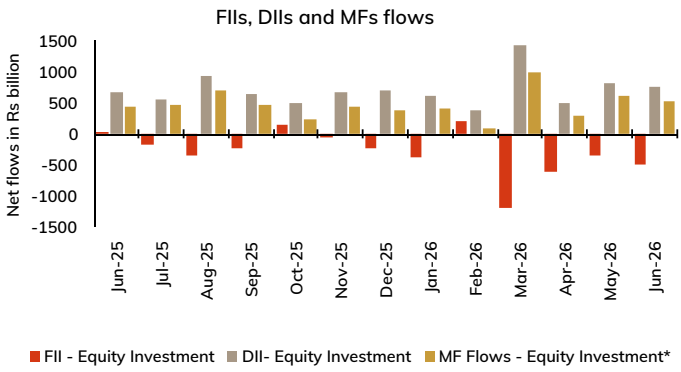
MARKET REVIEW

India Equity Market Performance

Index performance



Institutional flows



*MF data is as on July 24, 2026. Source: NSE, BSE, SEBI, NSDL (as on July 29, 2026)

- Indian equities ended in Jul-26 positively, benchmark indices closing higher against Jun-26, supported by domestic resilience and intermittent improvement in global cues through the month, despite volatility
- The market was influenced by a combination of global developments, including West Asia, fluctuations in crude oil prices and evolving expectations pertaining to central bank policies across the globe, alongside domestic factors such as earnings expectations and investor inflows. BSE Sensex rose 2.03% to 78,034 in Jul-26 from 76,478.67 in Jun-26, while the Nifty 50 gained 2.17% to reach 24,383.60 from 23,865.75, reflecting a largely rangebound market with an upward bias
- Market sentiment was supported by easing crude oil prices in parts of the month, optimism surrounding a potential India-US trade agreement and expectations of an accommodative global interest rate environment. Investors were also encouraged by the start of earnings season for Q1FY27, while resilient domestic fundamentals helped sustain market confidence.
- FPIs turned net buyers in Jul-26, purchasing Rs 202 billion worth of equities, compared with net selling of Rs 493.40 billion in Jun-26, indicating an improvement in foreign investor sentiment. DIIs continued to support the market as they picked up Rs 337.05 billion worth of equities in Jun-26, although lower than purchases worth Rs 858.00 billion in Jun-26, providing sustained liquidity to Indian equities
- Sectoral performance was mixed, with BSE Information Technology (16.3%), BSE Teck (11.8%) and BSE Realty (10.7%) emerging as top gainers, driven by earnings optimism, an improving demand outlook and support from expectations of a softer interest rate environment. Among the laggards, BSE Capital Goods and BSE Power declined 6.5% each, due to profit booking and investor caution, amid prevailing macroeconomic uncertainties
- Overall, supportive domestic factors, optimism over earnings and improving global cues helped Indian equities deliver positive monthly returns, offsetting the impact of geopolitical uncertainty, commodity price volatility and policy-related uncertainties

Fixed Income Outlook

In July 2026, fixed income yields experienced a sharp increase, driven by rising global bond rates, concerns over domestic inflation stemming from higher crude oil prices, and shifting foreign investor flows. Despite this, credit growth has remained robust, and if economic growth continues on its upward trajectory, we expect the output gap to narrow.

The recent postponement of G-sec bond inclusion in global indexes has reduced the likelihood of a G-sec rally in the near term. On the positive side, however, the Reserve Bank of India's measures aimed at attracting NRI deposits and covering hedging costs for banks are anticipated to generate significant deposits for banks and improve liquidity conditions. The measures may cap risk premiums on yields in the short term, resulting in a generally positive outlook for debt markets.

That said, we believe that much of the easing in yields may already be behind us. Therefore, we advise investors to avoid making aggressive long-term duration bets. Instead, the focus should be on steady carry, capital preservation, and risk-adjusted returns.

Within the fixed income market, we favor corporate bonds in the 1- to 3-year duration range. On the sovereign side, we maintain a positive outlook on long-dated State Government Securities. Consequently, we recommend investment in short-term products, corporate bonds, floating interest instruments, and banking and PSU debt in the current environment.

Market Activity

The 10-year Indian benchmark bond yield rose to 6.83% on July 31, 2026, up 7 bps compared to 6.76% as on June 30, 2026.

Liquidity conditions were generally in surplus during the month. The 91-day T-bill yield rose 10 bps on-month to 5.34% whereas the 182-day T-bill rose 17 bps to 5.59%. (Source: CCIL) bps – basis points; T-bill – Treasury Bill; RBI – The Reserve Bank of India; MPC – Monetary policy committee; SDL – State Development Loans. GST – Goods and services tax.

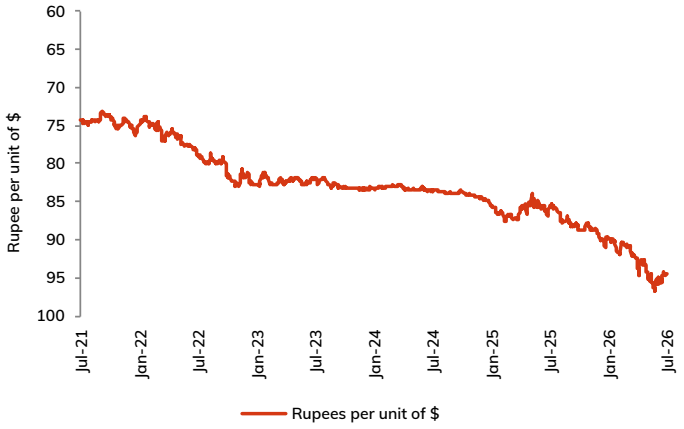
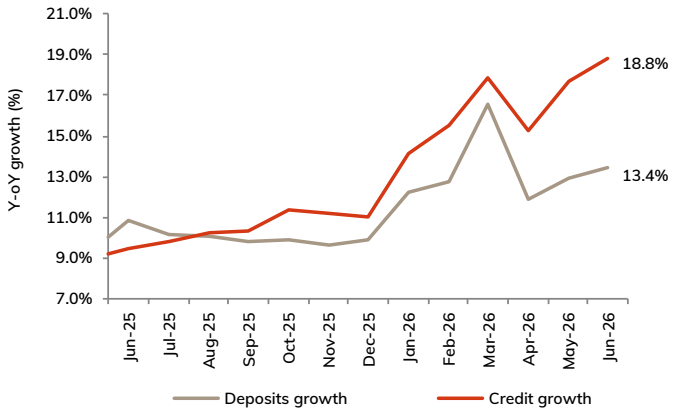
Other Market Indicators

Rupee ended at 95.72 against the dollar on Jul-26, down 1.18% from 94.60 on June 30, 2026

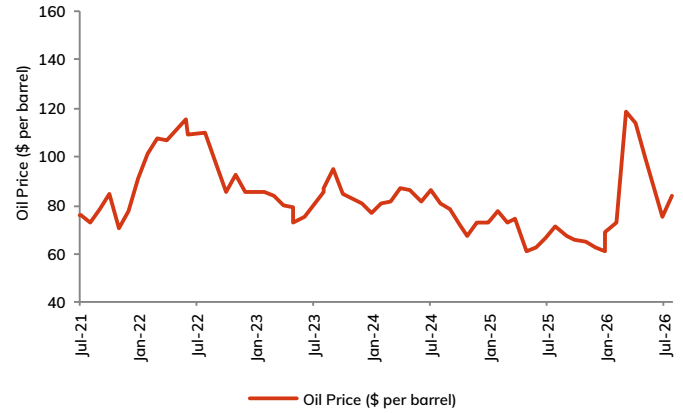


Bank deposits rose 13.4% on-year in Jun-26 vs 12.9% on-year in May-26, and credit rose 18.8% vs 17.7%

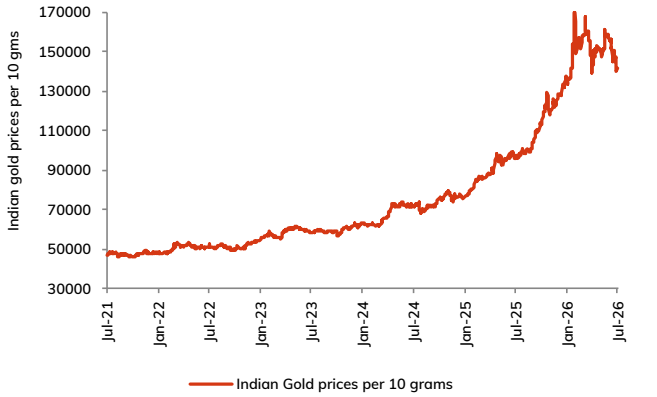


ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

Brent crude price closed at $90.12 per barrel in Jul-26, up 11.73% from $75.26 per barrel in Jun-26



Gold prices closed at Rs 1,42,224 per 10 gm in July 29, 2026 up 0.66% from Rs 1,41,286 per 10 gm on June 30



Brent data as on July 28, 2026. Source: RBI, IBJA.

OVERVIEW ON GOLD

- Gold prices ended at Rs 1,42,224 per 10 gm on July 29, 2026 up 0.66% from Rs 1,41,286 per 10 gm on June 30, as reported by the India Bullion and Jewellers Association (IBJA)
- Gold prices in India remained volatile through July but ended higher compared with the end of June. The month began on a strong note, supported by haven demand amid global uncertainties
- However, gains were partially reversed in the following weeks as a stronger US dollar exerted pressure on bullion prices, alongside some moderation in domestic demand
- In the latter part of the month, gold saw a recovery, driven by renewed haven buying as the global situation remained uncertain
- Overall, despite intermittent corrections during the month, gold prices ended July on a positive note, reflecting underlying support from global macroeconomic concerns and investor preference for defensive assets

Benefits of Systematic Investment Plan (SIP) - SIP Performance of Select Schemes

Returns shown for Growth Option as on 31 July, 2026

The Fund offers flexible and convenient Systematic Investment Plan (SIP) facility. To illustrate the advantages of SIP investments, this is how your investments would have grown if you had invested say Rs. 10,000 systematically on the first Business Day of every month over a period of time in the Growth Option of Respective Scheme.

The returns are calculated by XIRR approach assuming investment of Rs 10000/- on the 1st working day of every month. XIRR helps in calculating return on investments given an initial and final value and a series of cash inflows and outflows with the correct allowance for the time impact of the transactions.

Data as on July 31, 2026.

Past performance may or may not be sustained in future. After payment of IDCW the NAV has fallen to the extent of payout and distribution taxes if applicable.
